

Privacy notice for Parents/Carers

Under data protection law, individuals have a right to be informed about how the alternative provision uses any personal data that we hold about them. We comply with this right by providing 'Privacy notices' to individuals where we are processing their personal data.

This privacy notice explains how we collect, store and use personal data about students.

We, EquiScholars HQ, are the 'Data controller' for the purposes of data protection law.

The Personal data we hold

Personal data that we may collect, use, store and share (when appropriate) about learners includes, but is not restricted to:

- Contact details, contact preferences, date of birth, identification documents
- Results of internal assessments and externally set tests
- Characteristics, such as ethnic background, eligibility for free school meals, or special educational needs
- Exclusion information
- Details of any medical conditions, including physical and mental health
- Attendance information
- Safeguarding information
- Details of any support received, including care packages, plans and support providers
- Photographs
- CCTV images captured in school

We may also hold data about learners that we have received from other organisations, including schools, local authorities and the Department for Education.

Why we use this data

We use the data above to:

- Support student learning
- Monitor and report on learner progress
- Provide appropriate pastoral care
- Protect learner welfare
- Assess the quality of our services
- Comply with the law regarding data sharing

Our legal basis for using this data

We only collect and use learners' personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we process it where:

- We need to comply with a legal obligation

- We need it to perform an official task in the public interest

Less commonly, we may also process learners' personal data in situations where:

- We have obtained consent to use it in a certain way
- We need to protect the individual's vital interests (or someone else interests)

Where we have obtained consent to use learners' personal data, this consent can be withdrawn at any time. We will make this clear when we ask for consent, and explain how consent can be withdrawn.

Some of the reasons listed above for collecting and using learners' personal data overlap, and there may be several grounds which justify our use of this data

Collecting this information

While the majority of information we collect about learners is mandatory, there is some information that can be provided voluntarily.

Whenever we seek to collect information from you or your young person, we make it clear whether providing it is mandatory or optional. If it is mandatory, we will explain the possible consequences of not complying.

How we store this data

We keep personal information about students while they are attending our provision. We may also keep it beyond their attendance at EquiScholars HQ if this is necessary in order to comply with our legal obligations. We will retain this information and delete/destroy the information in accordance with our record retention schedule.

Data sharing

We do not share information about students with any third party without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

Where it is legally required, or necessary (and it complies with data protection law) we may share personal information about learners with:

- Our local authority – to meet our legal obligations to share certain information with it, such as safeguarding concerns and exclusions
- The Department for Education
- The learners family and representatives
- Educators and examining bodies
- Ofsted
- Suppliers and service providers – to enable them to provide the service we have contracted them for
- Financial organisations
- Central and local government

- Our auditors
- Health authorities
- Security organisations

- Professional advisors and consultants
- Charities and voluntary organisations
- Police forces, courts, tribunals

National pupil database

We are required to provide information about learners to the Department for Education as part of statutory data collections

Some of this information is then stored in the National Pupil Database (NPD), which is owned and managed by the Department and provides evidence on school performance to inform research.

The database is held electronically so it can easily be turned into statistics. The information is securely collected from a range of sources including schools, local authorities and exam boards

The Department for Education may share information from the NPD with other organisations which promote children's education or wellbeing in England. Such organisations must agree to strict terms and conditions about how they will use the data

For more information, see the Department's webpage on how it collects and shares research data

You can also contact the Department for Education with any further questions about the NPD.

- Object to the use of personal data if it would cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent it being used to send direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means (by a computer or machine, rather than by a person)
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data corrected, deleted or destroyed, or restrict processing
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the data protection regulations

To exercise any of these rights, please contact our data protection officer.
